RE: DSM 5 Trademark Violation

Dear Ms. Chapman:

It has come to our attention that the website <http://dsm5watch.wordpress.com/> is infringing upon the American Psychiatric Association's trademark DSM 5 (serial number 85161695) and is in violation of federal law by using it as a domain name.

According to our records, the American Psychiatric Association has not authorized this use of the DSM 5 trademark. Consequently, this use of the DSM 5 mark is improper and is in violation of United States Trademark Law. Your unauthorized actions may subject you to contributory infringement liability including increased damages for willful infringement. We request that you immediately cease and desist any and all use of the DSM 5 mark. Furthermore, we request that the DSM 5 mark is removed from the domain name <http://dsm5watch.wordpress.com/>.

The American Psychiatric Association has a good-faith belief that the above-identified website's use of the DSM 5 name and marks is not authorized by the American Psychiatric Association, its agents, or the law.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and that I am authorized to act on behalf of the American Psychiatric Association.

Please confirm, within the next ten (10) days of the date of this letter, that you will stop using our trademark in <http://dsm5watch.wordpress.com/>, and provide documentation confirming that you have. Any further use will be considered an infringement.

Thank you for your prompt cooperation in resolving this issue.

Very truly yours,

[Redacted]

Re: DSM-5 and ICD-11 Watch website

December 23, 2011

Dear [Redacted],

I acknowledge two emails received from you, on behalf of American Psychiatric Publishing, both dated December 22, 2011.

In response to the first email, I confirm that the domain URL

<http://dsm5watch.wordpress.com/>

has been changed today, December 23, to:

<http://dxrevisionwatch.wordpress.com/>

I confirm that the URL:

<http://dsm5watch.wordpress.com/>

has been deleted and is no longer available. You may check this for yourself, but I also attached a screenshot in .png file format of the page that is displayed when this now deleted URL is requested.

The title of my site was "DSM-5 and ICD-11 Watch".

I confirm that the site title has been changed to "Dx Revision Watch".

In response to the second email received from you, dated December 22, 2011:

You have requested that the DSM 5 mark is removed from the following domain name and social media accounts:

<http://xx>

<http://xx>

<http://xx>

I confirm that I am not the owner, the webmaster or administrator of any of the above three domains nor am I the registrant of the domain: [Redacted] nor has this domain been registered on my behalf. I have no responsibility for any of these three sites and any matters or concerns arising in connection with these three sites must be taken up with the site owners and the owners/administrators of the the social media accounts.

The three domains above were created by [Redacted], which is [Redacted]. The contact for [Redacted] is
